8th Grade Project for Class

Prepare during this week at home for the following activity which will be carried out in class on Thursday, October 27th:

Create a symbolic collage, self-portrait or other artistic piece (either drawn by you or illustrations cut from magazines or from an image search) to represent your uniqueness...as created in the image and likeness of God. Include the many aspects of God's love in your life.

Include some of the following elements...look at and use page 11 in your workbook as a guide:

- + a personality trait that makes people laugh
- + a personality trait your friends value most about you
- + a secret talent or weird ability
- + something good you have done for someone else
- + a favorite “ something” (but be original - no people, songs, movies, foods, animals, or colors !)
- + three blessings God has given you
- + quotations from three different family members, friends, and teachers describing something they love, appreciate, or admire about you. (Don't quote the same person twice !)
- Glue, paste, crayons etc will be provided for you in the classroom BUT bring your own pictures or image searches WITH YOU!!!
