

Mother Teresa Regional School
Grading Rubric for all Special Classes
2010-2011 School Year

	4	3	2	1
Class Participation and Participation in Contests, Art Shows, and Concerts	Each student will: come to class/activity on time; answer questions; participate in class discussions; participate in class activities and/or projects; be actively involved in class; and follow all of the class rules.	The student did not do one of the following: come to class on time; answer questions; participate in class discussions; participate in class activities and/or projects; be actively involved in class; and follow all of the class rules.	The student did not do two or more of the following: come to class on time; answer questions; participate in class discussions; participate in class activities and/or projects; be actively involved in class; and follow all of the class rules.	The student did not: come to class on time; answer questions; participate in class discussions; participate in class activities and/or projects; be actively involved in class; and follow the class rules.
Class Preparation	Each student will: come to class prepared with all required materials, and hand in materials, or books on time.	The student did not do one of the following: come to class prepared with all required materials, and hand in materials, or books on time.	The student did not do two or more of the following: come to class prepared with all required materials, and hand in materials or books on time.	The student did not: come to class with any of the required materials, and failed to hand in materials, or books.
Completion of Projects	Student completed the project/assignment on time and met all requirements.	Student completed the assignment without meeting all requirements including deadlines.	Student handed in project more than one week late and/or failed to meet more than ½ of the requirements.	Student failed to hand in project before the end of the trimester.
Demonstration of responsibility and respect for classroom and materials	Each student will: demonstrate respect for all materials, books and furniture in the classroom; clean their work area; and neatly return all classroom materials to their proper location.	Student did not do one the following: demonstrate respect for all materials, books and furniture in the classroom; clean their work area; and neatly return all classroom materials to their proper location.	Student did not do two or more of the following: demonstrate respect for all materials, books and furniture in the classroom; clean their work area; and neatly return all classroom materials to their proper location.	Student permanently damaged classroom or materials within the room.

- Students who are unable to participate in concerts, art shows and contests must have their parents/guardians receive permission from Mrs. Molloy or he/she will be subject to grading consequences in accordance with this grading policy.
- There will be a library project for 5th grade in the 3rd trimester which will receive a separate rubric.